

Trainee Spray Painter

In this role, you will be engaged in spraying and chemical blackening of parts used in our innovative machines. You will also be responsible for cutting metal parts using advanced equipment. Your work requires precision and accuracy, always following safety regulations and quality standards. Together with your colleagues, you work in a technical working environment where teamwork and craftsmanship are key.